

Increasing Local Capacities for Bridging the Divides in the Regions

Andre Dzikus
Chief
Water and Sanitation Section II
UN-HABITAT

Developing Capacities at Country and Regional Levels

- Vehicles
- Water for Asian Cities Programme
- Mekong Water and Sanitation Initiative
- Technical Cooperation
- Countries:
- Pakistan, India, Nepal, Bangladesh, China, Lao PDR, Cambodia, Viet Nam, Indonesia, Afghanistan, Myanmar/Burma, Mongolia, Iraq
- Pacific Islands under development
- Regional:
- Mekong TNA
- South Asia TNA

Developing Capacities at Country and Regional Levels

- UN-Water WWDR (Challenge Area on Human Settlement) work with RMIT Melbourne, Australia, LKY, NUS, Singapore, U o Incheon, Korea) Next Meeting Infra Workshop Songdo in August 2010
- 3rd APMCHUD Solo, Indonesia, July 2010, Focus Area Meeting the MDGs on Water and Sanitation
- Outcome:
 - Secretariat established in New Delhi, India
 - Capacity Hub in Teheran, Iran
 - Sub-regional Hub in Jakarta, Indonesia
 - Study trips with the region on community based approaches

Developing Capacities at Country and Regional Levels

- Capacities for Urban Water
- Next World Water Day 2011 on Urban Water
- Preparatory Meeting at Stockholm Water Symposium
- World Water Forum 2012
- Urban Water Management Centre in Teheran (UNESCO Centre)
- Board Meeting May 2010 and work programme for Asia
- Jointly organising Capacity Building Workshops with UNW-DPC in Rio and also in other regions
- Asia Pacific Urban Ministers Forum in Kazakhstan in September 2010 with a specific Area Focus on Urban Water and Sanitation in the region

Developing Capacities at Country and Regional Levels

- Water and Sanitation Centre in Songdo/Incheon, Korea (Under preparation)
- Close working with IWP/NUS, AIT Bangkok, AIT Vietnam, ASCI and TERI in India

UN  HABITAT
FOR A BETTER URBAN FUTURE

www.unhabitat.org